KAISER IN THE FIELD.

Will Lead Eighty Thousand Troops in Maneuvers in Saxony.

Corbach, Saxony, Sept. 8.—Eighty thousand men in full war equipment, with the heat at 120 degrees in the sun, are taking part in the autumn maneuvers here. The ambulances are nearly as busy as in real war picking up sun-stricken soldiers instead of wounded men.

Two Saxon army corps are engaged against two Prussian corps in the valley of the Saale, the field of strategy embracing Lutzen, where in 1813 Gustavus Adolphus of Sweden defeated the Austrians and lost his life; Rossbach, where Frederick the Great in 1757 defeated the French under Marshal Soubise, and Gross-Goeschen, where the Russians and Prussians fought the French, Emperor William allied, in talking to the generals, to these historic battles and to the distinguishing characteristics of each.

The Saxons rose earlier than the Prussians, and the Saxon cavalry swam the Saale at three points before 6 o'clock (the Prussians having destroyed all the bridges), surprised the Prussians, who were on the left bank in a thick fog, and forced them to retreat until they fell back on the main body. The emperor will lead one army on Tuesday.

SHOOTING AT PORT WRIGHT.

Ball Cartridge Fired by Mistake at Disorderly Soldier.

New London, Conn., Sept. 8.—Sergeant L. G. Bryson of the Second company (coast artillery) stationed at Port H. G. Wright, Fisher's island, was instantly killed at the post Saturday afternoon by a sentry who had been ordered to place him under arrest for creating a disturbance.

Further information is refused by the officer at the fort. Bryson was a native of Colorado. Private Price, also of the Second company, it is said, was ordered to fire a blank cartridge at Bryson and others who were engaged in pranks at the rear of the mess house. Price by mistake used a loaded shell.

German Socialists Split.

Berlin, Sept. 8.—Herr Bebel's articles on the vice presidency of the reichstag, which he is opposed to the Socialist party accepting, have been declined by the editors of the Vorwarts, and therefore the late autocrat of the party has been obliged to have them printed in less important Socialist papers. The significance of this is that the Vorwarts is the party's central organ and is owned collectively and controlled by a committee designated by the party organization. It is taken to mean that leaders like Herr Bebel on the party policy and favors accepting a vice presidency, have obtained the upper hand.

Filipino Insurgents Routed.

Manila, Sept. 8.—A body of scouts and constabulary combined have succeeded in scattering the insurgents who were reported a few days ago causing trouble in Cavite province in the district fronting on Laguna de Bay. They have been driven out of the mountain range to which they had fled for shelter when routed by the constabulary in an engagement which took place last week. After dispersing them the force returned and captured their camp, together with a large amount of supplies and ammunition.

Episcopal Church Convention.

Pittsburg, Sept. 8.—Arrangements have now been practically completed for the twenty-second annual convention of the Episcopal church, which will open in this city Tuesday, Nov. 3, and will be in session until the evening of Friday, Nov. 6. It is estimated that 1,500 delegates will be present, while every state and territory will be well represented. The honorary chairman will be Bishop Cortlandt Whitehead, while Rev. Dr. C. C. Tiffany of Sharon, Conn., is chairman of the executive committee.

Miss Bryan Not to Wed Hobson.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 8.—Mrs. W. J. Bryan has authorized an emphatic denial of the story printed by a Philadelphia paper that Miss Ruth Bryan and Captain R. P. Hobson of Merriam fame were engaged to marry. She said that there was not the least truth in the statement. This is corroborated by Miss Bryan's friends, who say the story doubtless had its origin in gossip that started here when the captain was a visitor last month.

Trades Union Congress Opened.

Leicester, England, Sept. 8.—The trades union congress has opened its sessions here. There were 400 delegates, representing 250 trades, with a membership of 1,500,000, present. The United States was represented by Messrs. Lawlor of Bethel, Conn., and Max Hayes of Cleveland, O.

Letter Carriers New Secretary.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 8.—The executive board of the National Association of Letter Carriers appointed Samuel W. Shepard of this city to act as national secretary and editor of the Postal Record during the six months' leave of absence of Secretary Edward J. Cantwell. Mr. Shepard has accepted.

Fatally Shot in Feed.

Port Chester, Sept. 8.—Pasquale Grieco was fatally shot here early in the day by Pasquale Mantello, who escaped. It is said that Mantello followed Grieco to this country from Italy and challenged him to fight.

To Inspect Italy's Navy.

Rome, Sept. 8.—Deputy Parri will make an interpellation insisting again on a parliamentary inquiry into the condition of the navy.
